Air-Vent Awnings Would Circle Globe Four Times

Imagine a strip of brightly colored aluminum that circles the globe four times.

That's what you would see if the Air-Vent Awning Co. had decided to line up panels it produced instead of using them in thousands of patio covers, window awnings, and trailer awnings.

Recognizing this production feat, Norman A. Manger, an executive of the Kaiser Aluminum & Chemical Corp., presented a trophy to Olin H. Stapp, president of the Air-Vent Awning Co. The inscription on the trophy reads:

"This award is in recognition of a record production in the fabrication of quality aluminum panels in the manufacture of awnings and patios in excess of 100,000 linear miles, or four times around the world."

AN IDEA OF just what Air-Vent Awnings, the world's largest firm devoted solely to the production of patios and aluminum awnings is doing with the 100,000 miles of panels is apparent in thousands of patio covers throughout the Southland.

Both open and screened patios are displayed at the Long Beach factory showroom at 5333 N. Long Beach Blvd., Long Beach, The 34 shades of color ranging from white to turquoise and even simulated wood paneling combine with rounded, heart-shaped and traditional oblong patterns to give an infinite variety of options to the outdoor designer.

Home offices of Air-Vent Awning are at 950 S. Vermont Ave. in Los Angeles.

California plants for the firm are located in Chino, San Bernardino, and Hayward. Others are in Dallas, Honolulu, Albuquerque, and Houston.

Readings to Include 'God Is Infinite'

"Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else."

This will be the Golden Text for a Lesson-Sermon on the subject "God," to be read at all Christian Science church services this Sunday.

Related readings from the denominational textbook include these lines: "God is the infinite, and infinity never began, will never end, and includes nothing unlike God" ("Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy).

New Tract Voted

The Dolores Development Corporation, 768 Battery St., San Pedro, has had a subdivision approved on a three-acre parcel for the construction of eight single family lots, located west of Palos Verdes Drive East at Newridge Drive, in the Palos Verdes Peninsula and Rolling Hills area.

Zone Change Army Begins New Drive For Officer Candidates

An application for a zone change from A-1 to C-4 in the Carson area has been taken under submission by the Regional Planning Commission.

The request, submitted by Edward Ravin, president of the New Horizon Land Co. of Lawndale, seeks the new zone for a 2.6-acre parcel at South Avalon Boulevard and the San Diego Freeway.

A new call for young men who can qualify for the Army Officer Candidate Program has been issued by Colonel Frank W. Morrow, commanding officer of the Army's Sixth Recruiting District.

"We need troop leaders and there is an equal need for leaders in the Army's highly specialized technical organization," Col. Morrow said.

Two Officer Candidate Programs currently are open to young men who can qualify, according to Sergeant Frank J. Zelenak, Torrance Army Recruiter. A College Plan is open to men and women 18 to 27 who hold a college degree and meet the physical and mental requirements. Eligible persons may qualify for a commission as a second lieutenant.

A second program enables qualified male high school graduates to apply for Officer Candidate School upon entry into the Army.

Young men and women interested in the programs are urged to visit the Torrance Army Recruiting Station, 1319 Sartori Ave., or call Sgt. Zelenak at FA 8-7069. Information also may be secured by writing to the Army Recruiting Main Station, 1301 S. Broadway, Los Angeles.
